Fighting Tactics. The despair crimson and the despair azure roll their Initiative check together as one roll. Then one adds 5 to the result, and the other subtracts 5 from the result. They decide which of the two adds/substracts.

Magic Resistance. The despair azure has advantage on saving throws against spells and other magical effects.

Our Lives As One. When the despair crimson drops to 0 hit points, the despair crimson absorbs their essence and instantly reappears as despair diarch, in an unoccupied space within 30 feet of him. The despair diorant assumes the initiative count of the despair azure.

Synchronized. While the despair azure is within 5 feet of the despair azure, she is synchronized and gains the following benefits:

- Whenever despair azure moves, she can move with him (no reaction required) while staying within 5 feet of her.
- The despair azure can use the despair azure's at-will spells.
- The despair azure regains 15 hit points at the start of her turn.

ACTIONS

Multiattack. The despair azure makes two Claw attacks. He can replace one of those attacks with a use of Spellcasting.

Claw. Melee Weapon Attack: +7, reach 5 ft. Hit: 10 (2d6 + 3) slashing damage plus 18 (4d8) force damage.

Wave of Despair (Recharges after a Rest). The despair azure begins channeling until his concentration ends (as if concentrating on a spell). While channeling, he must remain synchronized with the despair crimson. If they are no longer synchronized at any point, the channeling immediately ends, and the ability fails. If the despair crimson is already channeling this ability, the despair azure can instead complete the channeling, immediately unleashing the magic. Constitution Saving Throw: DC 16, each creature in a 60-foot cone. Failure: 27 (6d8) force damage plus 27 (6d8) psychic damage, and the target is incapacitated, falls prone, and is unable to stand up until the end of its next turn. Success: Half damage.

Spellcasting. The despair azure casts one of the following spells, requiring no material components and using Charisma as the spellcasting ability (spell save DC 16, +8 to hit with spell attacks):

> At will: eldritch blast (three beams), blade ward, mage hand, shatter
> 1/day: arcane hand, banishment, dispel magic, globe of invulnerability, resilient sphere, wall of force

REACTIONS

Protective Magic (3/Day). The despair azure casts shield in response to the spell's trigger, using the same spellcasting ability as Spellcasting. While being synchronized, the despair azure can also cast the shield spell when the despair crimson is attacked to affect her.

Stay United (While Synchronized). Trigger: The despair crimson is subjected to an ability check or saving throw that would move him against his will away from the despair azure. Response: The despair crimson gains advantage on the roll.
